

Are you a local year 13/college leaver keen on starting work straight away? Whether you're put off by student loans, need a break from education or university just isn't for you, we have an opportunity for you.

Lewisham & Greenwich NHS Trust will be offering a 36 month programme and will include, on successful completion, a degree level qualification via an apprenticeship scheme and a job lasting for a minimum of 1 year within LGT at a band 5 level. You will learn about being a junior manager in the NHS at a time when we are faced with huge challenges and exciting opportunities for innovation and change.

On successful completion you will have experienced the following:

- 2 x 1 year operational placements covering all aspects of junior service management in the NHS
- 2 x 6 month agreed placements, and could include areas such as governance, finance or Quality Improvement. The final placement will be agreed with your placement SRO (Senior Responsible Officer)

You will be fully supported throughout the 3 year programme and have a dedicated mentor as well as a manager who looks after you day-to-day. You will have opportunities to work with our most senior team and other external individuals. Our vision is to work together to provide high quality care for every patient, every day. Our staff put patients at the heart of everything they do – there is a genuine commitment to providing the best services we can for the local population.

If you are a year 13/college leaver who wants to work for the NHS and is committed to delivering excellent patient care then we would love to hear from you.
